The following index was compiled from the book, "Heritage '89 Pembina County, North Dakota "Then and Now" published under the auspices of the Pembina County Commissioners and The Pembina County Historical Society copyright 1988. While compiling the index, no attempts were made to alter or correct the spelling of names. The index is a compilation of personal surnames and names of businesses that include surnames as part of the business name. Married women are indexed by their married name and by their maiden name, if that information was available in the original text.

Heritage '89 basically covers the years c1870 to 1988. It is a pictorial history of Pembina Co., by township. Each township section has random pictures and short historical stories.
