I am looking for anyone with the surname Blanchard living in Pembina Co. about 1885. I have found one listing in the 1920 census. She was Marie Blanchard, sister to Zepharina Blandchard, m. to Nelson Hebert, s/o Narcisse Hebert. The Hebert family had come into Pembina Co. in about 1876/77, having left quebec in 1866 to work in the mills in RI. Nelson and Zepharina m. in ND between 1880/1882. I am looking for the family to which Zepahina and her sister belonged. According to the census, both of the girls were b. in the early 1850's in Quebec. Any help will be greatly appreciated.

I am researching Abram Louis and Emilie (nee Brandt) Marchand who came from Sonvillier, Bern, Switzerland to Red River Colony/Selkirk Settlement/Pembina in 1821. They had five children, Justine (married Jacque Antoine Bain 1822 in Red River Settlement), Augustine (married Antoine Paquette in 1822 at Red River Settlement), Louis Constant, Meline (married Joseph Gauthier in St. Louis MO.), and Louise Elzire who was mute. It is said when the Red River area flodded in 1826 many families left to go to St. Louis and on to Galena which is what most of this family did. Except possibly parents? There is a Louis Marchand on 1860 Mortality Index. It is impossible to do research on where this family died as the settlement went into Minnesota and up to Winnipeg. Any suggestions?

I am interested in finding out more about Fort Abercrombie, ND. My Great Grandfather, Michael CARLIN/CARLAND died while stationed there during the Indian Wars. He died at the fort of Typhoid Fever on May 18, 1864. He was a private in Hatch's Independent Battalion, Company D, Cavalry. Michael was in service there for approximately 6 months before his death. He also served part of that time at Pembina. My question is : Does Fort Abercrombie have a cemetery? Are there soldiers interred in the Fort's cemetery, if there is one? Is My Great Grandfather Michael buried there? Is there a compiled list of people interred in the area of the Fort? Any and all information you can share about the Fort and or the Cemetery will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

I am looking for information regarding the Dauben, Harrington, Doyle families who lived in the Drayton & Grafton areas. My great-great grandparents, John B. Harrington and his wife Ellen Margaret Doyle, moved to Pembina Co in the 1870's (from Ontario)with their children John Henry, Michael Joseph, Andrew James, Mary, Margaret Ellen, Ann, and Jane (Jennie?). This family is listed in Pembina County in the 1880 census. My great-grandmother Margaret Ellen Harrington married Peter Dauben of Wisconsin. Five of their six children were born in North Dakota, either in Drayton or Grafton, although all the church records I have found to date are in Grafton. Their children were Anthony James (Jim), Agnes Margretta, Barbara Mae, Jeremiah Joseph (Jerry), Veronica Julia, and Margaret. About 1908 this family moved to Saskatchewan. I am interested in any information concerning any branches of this family.

I am looking for the Trahan (Trahante?)family. The parents were Theophil

Theodore Trahan and his wife, Margaret (nee LaChance). They had at least two children: Margaret Georganna born 5 June 1886 in Cavalier and Nelson born April 1883. I am trying to find what happened to Nelson. Did he marry in Cavalier? Did he have children and where are they now? I have found them in the 1900 Federal Census in Cavalier. Any information you can help me with will be most appreciated. Thanks. Bobbie Hedges/Dieter My grandfather Frank Leslie Hedges was living w/his parents (Elisha and Fidelia Hedges), brother Charles & 3 cousins, William Rogers and Benjamin Hotchkiss and Flora Fowler. My grandmother Emma Jean Dieter was also living in Pembina in 1880 w/her parents Martin Van Buren Dieter and wife Catherine Keegan Dieter, along w/her siblings. Emma married Frank Hedges abt 1885 in the Pembina area and by 1900 they were in Ft. Buford, Williams Co. I have never been able to acquire a marriage license for Frank and Emma Dieter Hedges but have been told by my mother that they were married in a double ring ceremony in Pembina County. I would like very much to have any local information about Emma and Frank Hedges.

I am seeking any information on my great-great grandfather OLAS HANSON. He was born in Sweden @1846. He left his family (wife and kids) and came to the US in 1888, supposedly to go to ND where he had cousins. He died in Crystal, ND on 09 Feb 1925. Family lore is that he had another family in Crystal. His body was sent to his daughter in Peoria, IL where he was buried. I would like to learn more about his life in ND and if indeed, he had another family! Any help appreciated! Sue Fritz
