I am seeking information on Daniel Johnston and his family. Daniel was born in Cobden, Ontario in 1855. He married in 1888. His wife's name was Ida. They moved to Drayton Township, Pembina Co. around 1880. Daniel came first with his brother John. Both brothers homesteaded. Ida came after they were married. They had 4 daughters, Ada (b.July 1891), Laura M.(b.july1893) Reta (b. May 1896), and Ruth (b. 1903). The family moved to Rusk co., WI around 1905. Laura became a teacher. I think Ada may have married in North Dakota. Daniel's parents came from Scotland to Ontario in 1848. I would love to trade any information.

George Moran Leshar, born in Iowa about 1885, reportedly died in Cavalier, Pembina County, ND, in 1918. His father's 1929 obituary (in Fairfield, Iowa) included this passage: "Five of his granddaughters and one grandson acted as pallbearers, they being Mazie, Mary and Harold, the children of Mrs. Minnie Leshar, formerly of North Dakota, now residing in Fairfield; Florence, the daughter of Harry B. Leshar of Cavalier, North Dakota; . . ."

Minnie was George's widow, Minnie Emaline (Hawk) Leshar; Harry was his brother.

I seek any source of information on the Leshars of Cavalier, including vital records. Thank you for any help. Duncan Morrow cmorrow@ix.netcom.com

I hope someone can help us. My husband's grandfather stated in a letter that his mother was in Langdon, North Dakota. Her name was (as far as we know) Estella Meb VanLiew Feltenberger. We do not know if she took back her maiden name of VanLiew when she went to North Dakota. The letter said that they were divorced but I don't know if that is true. She supposedly died around 1904 along with her daughter Lucretia Feltenberger. Any help would be greatly appreciated. Marcy Feltenberger JFeltnbrgr@aol.com

Hello. I am looking for information regarding the PARISEAU family and the LAROSE family. Apparently, the PARISEAU family migrated from Joliette, Quebec, Canada in the late 1880's They acquired land (they are on the 1893 land records). Three of the PARISEAU'S married into the LAROSE family. The father was Frank

LAROSE...according to the family...was one of the first in that area and used to run the ferry across the Red River. It is also our understanding that Frank's wife was Cree indian (either whole or half). We know very little about the LAROSE family. Fortunately the PARISEAU family was somewhat prominent in Joliette...have information and willing to share. Please respond!! Chris Pariseau

Am interested in connecting with any descendants of William or Peter KRAFT who lived in Pembina co. in the late 1800's to the early 1900's. Peter came from Burgholz, Hessen with his cousin Elizabeth Kraft in 1882. William Kraft may be her elder brother. Her parents were William, Sr., and Elizabeth (HAPPEL) KRAFT who supposedly settled in Montcalm county, Michigan in the 1880's. Elizabeth married Theodore FISCHER c1883, son of Christlieb Fischer, both of Pembina county. Most of the Fischers moved to Buffalo Lake, MN by 1910. Elizabeth Kraft and Theodore Fischer are my great-grandparents. Would be delighted to share any information.

I am researching the town of Drayton, North Dakota (1878) and its Drayton, Ontario founders: Healy, McCrae, Wallace, Patimore and Fawcett. I am also researching the name Simmons from the same area.

Would like to know whether these folks founded a Methodist Church here.

Whether Ezra or Almon Healy was preaching here.

Whether Albert J Wallace was into politics before he left for California.

Whether there is any sign of the Patimores or Fawcetts here.

Would like to know if the Simmonses built any bridges, etc. Thanks, Barb
